

Autism Friendly Day!!

When?
Tuesday April 14

Where?
Allendale Bar and Grill

April is Autism Awareness month. On Tuesday April 14, AB&G will be hosting its second annual Autism Friendly Day. Families, friends, and caregivers are welcome to bring the people in their lives with autism for lunch or dinner.

Eating in a restaurant is something we all take for granted. Not so for people whose lives are touched by autism. Many times they refrain from dining out for fear of being stared at, judged or even admonished. Exposure to people with autism leads to understanding and understanding leads to acceptance.

So whether or not you have a person with autism in your life, let's show that as a community, we support people with autism, their families, and caregivers by coming to the AB&G.

Free information about autism will be available and it should be noted that this is not a fundraiser.
