

“Defending Your Teen”

Current trends and fads in adolescent substance abuse

Officer Tim Shoemaker

Please come to hear what Officer Shoemaker has to offer.
What he shares might surprise you!

Northern Highlands Regional HS

Hopkins Hall
January 12th 7:00 PM

Benefits From Attending:

Tim Shoemaker offers parents insight on current trends in adolescent substance use. Topics include new drugs, paraphernalia, and methods of concealment. He will have 40 hands-on displays available with all the latest drug placebos, paraphernalia and concealment devices. Motivation you need to significantly impact your child's world. You'll get some exciting new ideas on how to artfully motivate, discipline and constructively converse with your child.

About The Speaker:

Timothy Shoemaker is a nationally recognized prevention expert. He is the winner of state and national awards, recognized by government proclamations, invited to speak on the Today Show, featured by News 12, the Bergen Record and nearly two dozen regional publications. He has been published nationally by the Partnership for a Drug Free America, the MENSA Bulletin, Radical Parenting, Teen Chat Decoder and more. He has been recognized by numerous organizations and formally honored by national entities and politicians.

Sponsored by
The Allendale Recreation Commission